OF LOCAL INTEREST

Some People We Know, and We Will Profit By Hearing About Them.

This is a purely local event. It took place in Maysville. Not in some faraway place. You are asked to investigate it. Asked to believe a citizen's word. To confirm a citizen's statement. Any article that is endorsed at home is more worthy of confidence.

Than one you know nothing about, Endorsed by unknown people. Mrs. Dora Mefford, Maysville, says: "I had been feeling poorly for some time before I knew that my kidneys were at fault. I was nervous and dizzy and my back and head ached. I rested poorly and mornings I was all tired out. I read in a local paper how a neighbor had been cured of kidney trouble by Doan's Kidney Pills. I used them and before long I felt stronger and better and I slept good at night."

Price 50c. at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mrs. Mefford had. Foster-Milburn Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y.

GUESS IT WILL GROW THERE.

The tall cedar tree used as a Christmas tree during the holidays is still standing on Market street, and every day some remark is passed on it by those who have enough of civic pride in their makeup to want it removed. A few strokes of an ax and a short haul to river would put an end to all the discussion.

Mrs. George Davis, 33, died at her home in Lexington of heart trouble, leaving a husband, mother, father and two sisters. The parents are Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Daugherty of Lexington, the sisters, Mrs. John Roberts of Mt. Sterling and Mrs. H. B. Dudley of Flemingsburg.

Rev. James C. Campbell, aged 81, a well known minister of the Christian church, died at his home in Ironton Sunday. He was the father of twelve children, three of them being preachers, and was a relative of Alexander Campbell, founder of his church.

Mrs. Nannie Talley, aged 55, died of kidney trouble at her home on the Carmel pike near Flemingsburg, leaving a daughter, Mrs. Sam Riggs, and three sons.

The average cost of educating a boy in the Louisville public schools is $568.20, and of a girl $528.04, according to the Board of Education's report.

HOW MRS. BEAN MET THE CRISIS

Carried Safely Through Change of Life by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Nashville, Tenn.—"When I was going through the Change of Life I had a tumor as large as a child's head. The doctor said it was three years coming and gave me medicine for it until I was called away from the city for some time. Of course I could not go to him then, so my sister-in-law told me that she thought Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound would cure it. It helped both the Change of Life and the tumor and when I got home I did not need the doctor. I took the Pinkham remedies until the tumor was gone, the doctor said, and I have not felt it since. I tell every one how I was cured. If this letter will help others you are welcome to use it."—Mrs. E. H. BEAN, 625 Joseph Avenue, Nashville, Tenn.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, a pure remedy containing the extractive properties of good old fashioned roots and herbs, meets the needs of woman's system at this critical period of her life. Try it.

If there is any symptom in your case which puzzles you, write to the Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Mass.

OF COURSE, IT IS WINTER

—but with this mild, spring-like weather, you can not help but enjoy eating Ice Cream.

We could talk for hours and write yards and yards about its goodness, but we shall not.

We could tell you about it being made under the most sanitary conditions possible, but it is not necessary.

We could tell you of the fine and pure materials that go into our frozen products, but you know about that already.

So, how is it possible to say anything more than to EAT TRAXEL'S CREAM—and plenty of it.

WHITE SLAVE BLACKMAIL

Wealthy New Yorkers May Expose the "Gang" That Infests the Metropolis.

New York, January 28.—The white slave blackmail, the latest thriller for New Yorkers, may be brought out from the dark closets of many New York families today. For many months past, wealthy men and women have been blackmailed unmercifully, according to the federal officials, and the government attorneys will try to produce these rich New Yorkers in court today to prosecute the alleged leader of the "white slave blackmail" gang.

Don Collins, or Robert A. Tourbillon as he prefers to be called, was recently brought before U. S. Commissioner Houghton, and he is held under $50,000 bail to face the government's accusation today of being the "head and shoulders of the worst gang of blackmailers in the country." The formal charge is conspiracy to obtain money by fraud and extortion, his accomplice being, according to the government officials, William Butler, who was caught in the federal net in Philadelphia a few weeks ago.

Several wealthy New Yorkers gave information to the Department of Justice that they have paid thousands of dollars in "hush money" under threats of arrest under the Mann White Slave act for traveling with woman across state lines. Philadelphians also furnished similar information and Collins was arrested.

The assurance of the government officials that the complainants are all eminently respectable men has led to speculation as to whether these wealthy New Yorkers and Philadelphians will appear today to identify the leader of the "gang" and tell the circumstances under which they were mulcted. Some very interesting testimony is bound to come out, if the complainants appear. It is known that several of those who furnished the original information are not willing to expose their names to the unkind remarks and stigma of a white slave case.

Assistant District Attorney John C. Knox has threatened to force these victims to testify by serving subpoenas upon them.

The expose of the "white slave blackmail" was begun recently in Philadelphia, when Mrs. Susan G. Wippeny, a highly respectable society woman, identified Butler, the alleged accomplice of Collins, as one of three men who called upon her last year and demanded $8,000, under threat of arresting her son on a charge of white slavery. In the face of much inevitable notoriety, Mrs. Wippeny aided the government detectives and told the full story of the attempt to blackmail her. It is said by the secret service men that fully $200,000 has been mulcted from prominent people, but none of them would go so far as the Philadelphia woman.

According to Mrs. Wippeny, Butler and two other men called at her summer home last June. They said they had followed her son, Marshall Wippeny, and a young woman to Wildwood, N. J., and had records of the times the young man and young woman were there. They asked for $8,000 to "fix the chief." She pleaded she did not have the money available, and they agreed to accept $5,000, saying it would be hard to satisfy the "chief" with that small amount. They showed warrants and badges, which have been proven to be imitations.

Mrs. Wippeny testified she finally put them men off, saying she would consult her son and that, if he desired her to pay the money to keep him out of trouble she would do so. She reported the case to the federal authorities, but the men learned of what was going on and failed to return for the "bundle."

According to the federal authorities three of four pretty young women are associated with the gang. They created evidence against susceptible wealthy men and also against physicians who were blackmailed under threats of malpractice prosecutions.

COMET PASSES AROUND SUN.

Berkeley, Cal., January 28.—Taylor's comet, discovered early last month, and visible through small telescopes in the northwestern sky, will make its passage around the sun today, according to calculations made by Prof. A. O. Leuschner, director of the student observatory here. The orbit of the comet is a very short one, requiring five and one-third years to make the journey to and from the sun. This comet is faint and may never be visible to the naked eye.

Senator J. E. Stewart, Republican, died at his home in Rowan county, Tuesday. He represented the Thirty-fifth District, composed of Rowan, Menifee, Carter, Fleming and Elliott counties.

OUR DAILY BIRTHDAY PARTY

January 28.

Judge James Francis Smith of the U. S. Court of Customs Appeals, who led the California volunteer cavalry in the Philippine campaign and became governor general of the Philippines, is 57 years old today. Judge Smith is a native of San Francisco, born January 28, 1859, educated at Santa Clara College, and admitted to the bar in 1881. When the Spanish-American war broke out, he was colonel of the First California Cavalry, and he led his men in the first expeditionary force sent to the Philippines. He took part in the taking of Manila and the fighting with the bandit bands under Aguinaldo. He was made a brigadier general of volunteers for his distinguished services, and was made military governor of the Island of Negros. Later he was made collector of customs for the islands, then a justice of the Philippine Supreme Court, next a member of the Philippine Commission, and finally, from 1906 to 1909, governor general. On his return to the United States he was appointed to the customs bench at Washington.

Henry A. Lukeman, noted American sculptor, 45 years old today.

Rev. Dr. Samuel McComb, noted Episcopal preacher, now canon of the cathedral at Baltimore, 52 years old today.

Brig. Gen. William Henry Bisbee, veteran of Civil war, Indian wars and Spanish-American war, 76 years old today.

Daniel Willard, president Baltimore & Ohio railroad, 55 years old today.

Charles S. Barrett, national president of the Farmers' Union, 50 years old today.

Dr. Reuben A. Torrey, Moody evangelist and theologian, 60 years old today.

Hon. Jared Y. Sanders, former Governor of Louisiana, 47 years old today.

THIS DATE IN HISTORY.

NAVAL MILITARIANS MEET.

Washington, January 28.—The Naval Militia Association opens its annual convention here today, with officers attending from each of the twenty-one states in which the naval militia is active. Secretary Daniels will speak tomorrow at the annual banquet and is expected to urge the extension of the naval militia. There are now 8,668 officers and men enlisted.

WASHINGTON THEATER.

Photodramatic audiences will see what is said to be one of the finest examples of the photographer's art in the Lasky production of "The Secret Sin," which will be the attraction at the Washington tonight, with charming Blanche Sweet in the leading roles. Miss Sweet plays the characters of twin sisters in this stirring play. How as one sister she can talk and even quarrel with the other is one of the mysteries of the camera.

The ministers of Fleming county will organize a ministerial association at Flemingsburg Monday.

The Barrett Line towboat Stack Barret, is due up with lumber for Portsmouth, O.

Captain Arthur ze Adams, the Fren chef, will go on one of the up-river towboats in a few days.

Captain James Stewart who for the last ten years was pilot on Captain T. J. Hall's boats, resigned his position last Saturday and is open for other engagements. The Captain lives in Newport, Ky.

A report has been in circulation that Pilot Brady Berry, of the ill-fated Kanawha, has been arrested by West Virginia authorities and taken to Charleston. Another report was that Berry had become insane at Parkersburg. Neither report is true. The facts as we hear them are that the Federal Inspector at Point Pleasant ordered Pilot Berry to leave the Dunbar at Pittsburg and bring to them his license which was surrendered until the investigation is completed and a decision rendered. Each witness, including Berry, was examined separately and behind closed doors.

We are informed that some of Pilot Berry's friends are fearful that he will become insane.—Gallipolis Tribune.

TIED WORKING MEN

A Local Druggist Suggests a Remedy For Overworked, Run-down Men.

The following letter from Manager Hodes recounts the experience and conditions of many Maysville men. Read this letter and our offer which follows:

Brooklyn, N. Y. "I am a general office manager, and became so nervous and run-down in health that I lost my appetite and finally my health broke down completely, largely because of overwork. I tried Beef Iron and Wine, and other remedies without help. I saw Vinol advertised, and soon after taking it I noticed an improvement. I now have a hearty appetite, sleep better, feel better and have gained considerable in weight." Samuel Hodes, 501 Stone Ave.

The reason Vinol is so successful in such cases is because it contains the three oldest and most famous tonics viz.—the medicinal elements of fresh cod livers without oil, peptone of iron and beef peptone.

We ask every run-down, overworked man in Maysville to try a bottle of Vinol with the understanding that their money will be returned if it fails to help them as it did Mr. Hodes.

THREE DEATHS IN FAMILY.

(Manchester Signal.)

Mrs. E. A. Walker, aged 58, wife of William Walker, the well known blacksmith at Trinity, Ky., died one day last week with pneumonia, and while the casket containing the body of Mrs. Walker was being taken to the cemetery, Miss Eva, aged about 35, a daughter, passed away with the same disease. Two days later Mrs. Sarah Ann Gilkinson, aged 93, and mother of Mrs. Walker, died after a brief illness with grip superinduced by old age. She is the widow of the late William Gilkinson, who died sixteen years ago. Mrs. Gilkinson is survived by ten children, seven sons and three daughters. Mrs. Walker is survived by her husband and four children. The three bodies were buried at East Fork.

Mr. W. V. Shaw, who has been freight agent for the L. & N. railroad at Millersburg, has been transferred to be general freight agent for the company at Paris, succeeding Mr. W. H. Harris, who has been promoted to a similar position with the L. & N. at Lexington. Both of the above changes will be effective February 1.

William Mayfield, well known plasterer of Ripley, died at his home after a brief illness.

VERY BUSY

We have been since the first of the year, but now the offerings having somewhat decreased, we hope to be able to take care of all who want to sell their Tobacco with us.

We are very sorry that so many were compelled to go elsewhere during the rush after making an effort to get in our house, and desire to thank them as well as those for whom we have made sales.

We feel the policy we have adopted of good treatment to both buyers and sellers without knocking our competitors, but attending strictly to our own business has contributed to our wonderful success.
